“C.A.P.P.I.N.G It Off”

Directions: Throughout this assignment, you will continuously analyze and evaluate your own learning regarding the Statistics Unit. Follow the guidelines to complete each section of the “C.A.P.P.I.N.G It Off” chart on the back of this page. You should add to the chart as often as possible, and at least twice a week. Your weekly progress on this assignment will be checked at random, and the completed assignment will be due after the Unit Assessment.

C: Capabilities – What skills are you capable of that you would not have been able to do prior to learning? How have your mathematical abilities improved? How has your ability to justify and reason mathematically developed? How has your capability to communicate your thoughts using correct mathematical terminology improved?

A: Accomplishments – List your personal accomplishments. You may consider aspects such as your work ethic, problem-solving techniques, time management, achievement of personal goals, etc.

P.P.: Practice towards Progress – How did you practice in order to reach your new capabilities and accomplishments? Please include a sample of practice that you are proud of to demonstrate your progress. This sample may be class work, homework, an exit slip, etc. Please label this piece of work “P. & P.” and staple the sample to this page.

I.N.: In Need of improvement – In what areas do you feel as though you are in need of improvement? Why do you feel this way? Please include an example assignment that demonstrates your need for improvement. This example may be class work, homework, an exit slip, etc. Please label this piece of work “I. N.” and staple the example to this page.

G: Growth – How have you grown with regard to your needs of improvement? What did you do to recover in those areas, and how do you feel regarding your growth and advancement?

★ Whenever you become aware of a new capability, an accomplishment, or general progress, take note of the event in the “C,” “A,” and/or “P.P” sections, to be observed by me on the random checks.

★ Whenever you recognize an area in which you believe you need improvement, write your thoughts in the “I.N.” section, to be observed by me on the random checks.

★ Whenever you notice a growth regarding your personal areas of need, take note of the growth in the “G” section.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to ask. ☺
