

Looking Back...

- How much did you know about this subject before we began?
- What process(es) did you go through to solve a problem?
- Have you seen anything similar to this subject in the past?
- In what ways have you improved in regards to this subject?
- What problems did you encounter when working on this subject, and how did you resolve them?
- What resources did you use when learning about this subject?

Looking Inward...

- How do you feel about your work in this unit so far?
What do you like, dislike, enjoy, etc.?
- What was satisfying to you about your work in this unit so far?
- What did you find frustrating about this unit, and did you learn/grow from that frustration?
- What standards did you hold for yourself throughout this unit?
Did you meet these standards?
- What does your work reveal about you as a learner?
- What were your goals in this unit? Did your goals change at all?
Did you meet your goals?
- What did you learn about yourself while working on this unit?
- Have any of your ideas about this topic changed while working on this unit?
- Compare and contrast a piece of work from this unit with another one from earlier this year. What changes/growth do you see?

Looking Outward...

- Compare your work with a peer's. In what ways are your processes similar/different?
- If you were the teacher, what comments would you give yourself about your work?
- If you were to assign yourself a grade for the unit, what would your grade be, and why?
- What do you want other people to notice when they look at your work for this unit?
- If someone else were to look at your work, what might they learn about you?

Looking Forward...

- What is one area in which you would like to improve?
- What would you change if you had a chance to do any problem/assignment from this section over again?
- Have you observed your peers using any processes/strategies that you would like to try? Explain.
- In what ways can you allocate your time more efficiently?
- What would you want your teachers next year to know about you?
- What do you want more help with, and what plan do you have for receiving for help?
- What problems/assignments would you want to show anyone to help them understand how you learn? Why?